

2017 Middle Summer School Intervention/Promotion Program Courses

During the school year, 6-8 grade students must pass Language Arts, Math, Science, and/or Social Studies to be promoted to the next grade. Minimum requirements of Language Arts, Math, and either Science or Social Studies)

School Year	Summer Program
Student Failed ONLY Language Arts	Student will take Language Arts for Promotion and Social Studies for Intervention
Student Failed ONLY Math	Student will take Math for Promotion and Science for Intervention
Student Failed ONLY Social Studies	Student does not need Summer School
Student Failed ONLY Science	Student does not need Summer School
Student Failed Language Arts and Math	Student will take both courses failed for promotion (Language Arts and Math)
Student Failed Language Arts and Science	Student will take both courses failed, but only Language Arts is required for promotion
Student Failed Language Arts and Social Studies	Student will take both courses failed, but only Language Arts is required for promotion
Student Failed Math and Science	Student will take both courses failed, but only Math is required for promotion
Student Failed Math and Social Studies	Student will take both courses failed, but only Math is required for promotion
Student Failed Science and Social Studies	Student will take both courses failed, but only one course is required to pass in the summer for promotion
Student Failed three courses (Math, Language Arts, and Science)	Student will only take two courses for promotion (Math and Language Arts)
Student Failed three courses (Math, Language Arts, and Social Studies)	Student will only take two courses for promotion (Math and Language Arts)
Student Failed three courses (Math, Science, and Social Studies)	Student will only take two courses for promotion. Math is required. The second courses will be either Science or Social Studies
Student Failed three courses (Language Arts, Science, and Social Studies)	Student will only take two courses for promotion. Language Arts is required. The second courses will be either Science or Social Studies
Student Failed all four courses	Not Eligible for Summer School